

RSL Continues Nationwide Education Outreach with Campaign in Butha Buthe

Maseru, Lesotho – 22 August 2025 - Revenue Services Lesotho (RSL) has successfully concluded a three-day Tax Education Outreach Campaign in Butha Buthe, held from 19–21 August 2025. This initiative is part of RSL's ongoing nationwide outreach drive aimed at promoting voluntary tax compliance and strengthening stakeholder engagement across the country.

The outreach forms a key component of the Lesokoana Strategy 2024–2027, which envisions making tax compliance a natural and essential part of everyday life for all Basotho. The campaign in Butha Buthe represents another major milestone in bringing this vision to life, offering direct and accessible tax education to communities.

During the campaign, RSL officials engaged with residents through a series of educational sessions and interactive displays.

Key focus areas included:

Understanding taxpayer obligations

Information on the Tobacco and Alcohol Levy

Registration procedures for employees and businesses

The importance of timely tax filing

The communities were also able to access a range of services through RSL's mobile office, including:

Filing for the Tobacco and Alcohol Products Levy

Registration of employees and businesses

Support with e-Filing and other digital services

On-site responses to taxpayer inquiries

The Butha Buthe outreach is part of a broader series of campaigns planned across all districts of Lesotho, supporting RSL's commitment to building a well-informed and tax-compliant society.
